

North London Forensic Service 11th International Conference

Terrorism, Extremism and Mental Health Services

This conference will be of interest to mental health professionals – psychiatrists, psychologists, social workers, nurses and managers – and also to counter-terrorism practitioners and academics in terrorism studies. The growing evidence that mental disorders are of importance in this area, contrary to the previous consensus, will be explored. More importantly, the conference aims to begin to consider the practical implications of this for practitioners and how multi-agency approaches may be helpful.

Monday 26th and Tuesday 27th
September 2016
Queens' College, Cambridge

This is a non-profit making academic conference sponsored by Barnet, Enfield & Haringey Mental Health NHS Trust
Conference Organisers: Dr Simon Wilson, Dr Frank Farnham, Dr Richard Taylor, Sara Henley, Claire Wells
